

Fundraising Adviser

AMPERAGE Marketing & Fundraising is looking for a professional, energetic individual to join the team as a fundraising adviser in Cedar Falls.

The fundraising adviser is responsible for providing counsel and direction to non-profit clients regarding their fundraising efforts, including feasibility studies, capital campaigns and marketing strategies. The fundraising adviser will also work to develop new business.

A bachelor's degree and a minimum 3-5 years of direct fundraising experience, including capital campaigns, are required.

Other qualifications include:

- Strong communication and writing skills
- Knowledge of fundraising regulations and practices
- Ability to manage complex projects

Email cover letter and resume to mwaschkat@amperagemarketing.com

AMPERAGE is an Equal Opportunity Employer.